

Dr Ana Maria Moreno – Research Associate, Corelli Consulting

Dr Ana Maria Moreno is a Research Associate with Corelli Consulting, with a background in industrial biotechnology.

Originally from Colombia, Dr Moreno has worked in the Australian biotechnology sector for the past five years, addressing the challenges facing industry and researchers to transition research into real-world innovative solutions.

Corelli Consulting specializes in transactions within the biotechnology, health and life sciences sectors, and adds value to investment and corporate transactions through due diligence and analysis.

Key services include: commercial opportunity identification; technical assessment and due diligence; technology in- and out-licensing; strategy development and review; market review; partnering identification and analysis, and competitor analysis.

Corelli Consulting is based in Sydney, Australia, with activities in Australia, New Zealand, US, Korea, and Japan.