

Mr Garold Breit
Executive Director
University of Manitoba Technology Transfer Office

Garold Breit is a leader with extensive experience in technology-based organizations. His career began at Revlon, where he served as a Senior Marketing Manager and member of the Corporate Acquisitions Team. Mr. Breit has served as the president of biopharmaceutical companies and has launched three successful intellectual asset programs at dramatically-different academic institutions (Creighton University, the University of South Alabama and at the University of Texas). He has consulted with Boys Town National Research Hospital on complex intellectual property matters since 1993.

Today, Gary is the Executive Director of the Technology Transfer Office (TTO) at the University of Manitoba in Winnipeg. The University of Manitoba is the Province's leading comprehensive, research-intensive academic institution and has an enrollment of more than 27,000. The TTO has recently completed four record-breaking years (invention disclosures, transactions, Federal Grants, start-ups and revenues).
