

Jane Ryan PhD
Vice President,
Product Development

Biota Holdings Limited

Dr Ryan has many years of international experience in the Pharmaceutical/Biotechnology Industry where she managed research and development programs, as well as having key roles in business development and alliance management.

Dr Ryan has worked at Roche and Columbia University in the USA and with Peptech and Cambridge Antibody Technology in the UK.

Since returning to Australia, she worked with Peptech before joining Biota Holdings Ltd where she has held senior roles in product development, commercialization, business development and alliance management.

Dr Ryan is currently the Vice President, Product Development and oversees the development of products for the treatment and prevention of Rhinovirus, Influenza and Respiratory Syncytial Virus.

Dr Ryan is a member of the following Boards, Diabetes Australia - Victoria, Bio Innovations SA.