

Mr Lubor Gaal
Head of Europe Search, Strategic Transactions Group
Bristol-Myers Squibb

Lubor is Head of Europe, Global Search, Strategic Transactions Group, Bristol-Myers Squibb.

Lubor is responsible for the acquisition and licensing of compounds or drug programmes for all BMS therapeutic areas.

Prior to joining Bristol-Myers Squibb, Lubor was Head of Business Development for Neuro3d and CBO of Vectron Therapeutics AG.

In the US, Lubor was at Berlex Laboratories where he was responsible worldwide for Cardiovascular and CNS Licensing of Schering AG.

Before joining Berlex, he worked for Burrill and Company, where he advised companies on business development strategies and execution.

Lubor received his Ph.D. in Molecular and Cell Biology from the University of California at Berkeley and his B.Sc. in Neuroscience from the University of Sussex in Brighton, U.K.