

Sandra Buth
Principal | Global Employer Services/Reward
Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu Ltd

Sandra Buth has over 16 years of commercial consulting experience in Australia and the US and has practised both as a lawyer and tax accountant.

Sandra has acted for many large multinational companies, public and private, in relation to the design, re-design and implementation of deferred compensation plans, long term incentive plans, equity incentive and compensation plans; and generally in respect of executive compensation.

Sandra has particular expertise in respect of global equity plans. She has designed and implemented executive and employee equity plans offered throughout the world by multinational companies head-quartered principally in the US, the UK, Australia, Canada and Japan. Her clients include e-commerce and new technology companies.

She is a frequent seminar speaker, in the US, UK, and Australia. Sandra has authored numerous technical publications in respect of global employee equity, trust law and tax.