

Steve Chandler
General Manager
Florigene Pty Ltd

Steve Chandler is General Manager of Florigene Pty. Ltd, Bundoora, Melbourne.

After obtaining a Ph.D in plant tissue culture form Birmingham University (UK) he worked in the USA and Canada as a postdoctoral researcher on salinity tolerance before joining Florigene (then Calgene Pacific) as a scientists in 1987, researching clonal forestry techniques.

Progressively becoming involved in the commercialisation of genetically modified flowers he now heads the groups regulatory and product development activity.

Steve is a Director of Florigene and plays a key role in management of the companies production facilities in South America and with the worldwide sales and marketing group.

Florigene Pty. Ltd. Is part of the Suntory group of companies.

